

COVER REPEAL!

Can you help select the cover for the first Teddy Quillfeather Mystery?

HARDY HALLWAY

SUNSET BOULEVARD

LEMPICKA LIFT

INVICTA

RESPONSE TO THE RECENT COVER REVEAL was universally positive but not universally in agreement that it was the right cover for a manor house mystery of comedy and heists and penguins.

The cover revealed was never the only candidate and in fact it was selected because it was such a departure which, in retrospect, I realise might not be the best and only criteria.

If you could spare a moment to click on the Vote Now button and have a very quick (first impressions are best impressions) glance at the final four candidates, and then vote for the one that most appeals (assuming any do), it would be immensely valuable in helping me move on with my life plans.

Vote now!

I never send a newsletter without at least two fresh exclusives, so here's a cartoon that I've been working on for the next edition.